Dear Business Owner or Manager,

The Ketchikan Gateway Borough and City of Ketchikan recently approved a sales tax holiday for their respective sales taxes. The holiday will occur on October 1, 2022.

Participation in the holiday by a seller is voluntary. There are also specific limitations on the holiday, one of which is that goods (other than major appliances and furniture) or services delivered on a day other than the day of purchase cannot be exempted under the holiday. For the full text of the holiday, please visit the following link:
