Application for Resale Certificate

Local businesses making purchases for resale must obtain a Resale Certificate for these purchases to be exempt from city sales tax. Resale Certificates will only be issued to businesses that are registered with the city and are current in filing and remitting sales tax with the city. Certificates will not be issued if the business is not in compliance.

Application for a certificate is not a guarantee of being issued a certificate. The certificate will be valid through the end of the calendar year and the Buyer is responsible for renewing the certificate annually.
